Virginia Elks Association News

July 25, 2013

Danville 227 Uses Gratitude Grant in Good Works in Community

L to R: Jimmie Tickle, Richard Gunn

L to R: Donnie Davis, Richard Gunn

Danville 227 used its ENF Gratitude Grant to benefit needs in the Danville area.

Left photo: Danville 227 Exalted Ruler Richard Gunn presents Jimmie Tickle, Principal of Pittsylvania Career & Technical Center with 200 pairs of Virginia Elks Safety Glasses. The Elks of Danville 227 also gave out safety glasses to other area schools: Averett University 59 pair, George Washington High School 50 pair, Bartlett Yancey High School 120 pair, Danville Community College 240 pair, and Westover Christian Academy 75 pair.

Right photo: Danville Lodge 227 Exalted Ruler Richard Gunn presents Band Director Donnie Davis a check for $1,250.00. This check will help the Westover Christian Academy Band "make beautiful music". These gifts were made possible with an ENF Gratitude Grant.

Submitted by Danville 227

Send comments to webmaster@virginiaelks.org