Virginia Elks Association News

April 5, 2015

Petersburg 237 Donates Toiletries and Books to Local VAMC

At left is Petersburg 237 Exalted Ruler David Fleet with McGuire VA Medical Center volunteer worker Steve Reynolds. Some of the Items donated were shaving cream, razors, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorants, and mouth rinse. Also donated were books and magazines. All items will be distributed to patients at the center.

This is a project that the lodge does four times a year at the McGuire VA Medical Center in Richmond. Petersburg 237 wants to make sure that our Veterans are taken care of.

Submitted by Ron Brooks

Send comments to webmaster@virginiaelks.org