

Virginia Elks Association News

September 17, 2012

Arlington Fairfax 2188 Treats Veterans at Martinsburg VAMC

L to R: Linda Gardner, Art Childers, Frank Burns, Sandy Burns, Patricia Graves, Ken Hensley, and Tim Knotts.

Seven members of Arlington-Fairfax 2188 visited the Martinsburg Veterans Medical Center in support of its Annual Late Summer Carnival. The lodge served over 125 veterans and staff and served pulled pork sandwiches, hotdogs, coleslaw, chips, candy and drinks. They were one of five vendors providing food and snacks to the event. The veterans also enjoyed carnival games, booths, clowns, balloons and give a ways. The event lasted for about two and a half hours and all had a great time. Helping with the event were: Linda Gardner, lodge veterans co-chair; Art Childers; Frank Burns, PER; Sandy Burns; Patricia Graves, Loyal Knight; Ken Hensley, PER, veterans co-chair; and Tim Knotts, PSP.

Submitted by Tim Knotts