Charlottesville 389 Aids Drug Awareness in Local Parade

Charlottesville 389 Displays Drug Awareness Trailer & Elroy in the Dogwood Parade

Charlottesville 389 has been displaying the Drug Awareness trailer in the annual Dogwood parade for over ten years.

Channel 29 News covered this event and was given a description of what the Elks do for the community. Below is the caption provided for NBC Channel 29 News.

“Formed in 1868, it is the leading fraternal order in the U.S. Consisting of nearly one million members, some of the more famous members of this organization include Franklin D. Roosevelt, John F. Kennedy, Will Rogers and Clint Eastwood. The Elks are greatly recognized for their charitable contributions to numerous local charities such as Habitat for Humanity and Meals on Wheels. The Elks on a National Level contribute over Two Million dollars each year in scholarships to deserving High School Seniors. They also take great pride in honoring our veterans through various programs throughout the year.”
