

Charlottesville 389 Hosts 2018 Lodge Hoop Shoot January 7

Charlottesville Elks Lodge 389 held their local hoop shoot contest on Sunday, January 7, 2018. The contest was held at St Anne's – Belfield School in Charlottesville. Congratulations to the winners who will advance to the Central District Hoop Shoot! Special thanks to all our Elks who came out and volunteered for this event. Special guest volunteers were Caitlyn Banh and past Lodge 389 winners Hayden and Christopher Cook.

Front ~ Kasahn Banks/8-9 Boys 3rd Place, Joshua Tipton/8-9 Boys 2nd Place, Taylor Tipton/10-11 Boys 2nd Place, Emma Bingler/10-11 Girls Winner, Ford Cook/10-11 Boys Winner, Aiden Haasnoot/8-9 Boys Winner, Back ~ ER Larry Suddarth

Front ~ Hayden Cook, Patsy Minahan, Local Director Lynn Rutherford-Snow, Caitlyn Banh, Trudy Neofotis, and Dale Thacker, Back ~ Christopher Cook, Harold Morris, ER Larry Suddarth, John Carlton, and Nancy Guthrie

Participants Kasahn Banks, Taylor and Joshua Tipton, Emma Bingler, Chris Munchmeyer, Ford Cook, Dylan Engle, Austin Munchmeyer, and Aiden Haasnoot and ER Larry Suddarth. Not pictured Will Lambert

Will Lambert/10-11 Boys 3rd Place with ER Larry Suddarth

The District contest will be held on Sunday, January 28, 2018. The local winners for the Central District lodges will travel to Fredericksburg, Virginia. They will be treated to a breakfast at the Fredericksburg Lodge 875 at 9:15 AM. The contest will be at 11:00 AM at the Walker-Grant Middle School in Fredericksburg, Virginia.