

Charlottesville Lodge NO. 389 Lays Wreath at Annual Memorial Day Service

(Retired Colonel James O'Kelley)

On May 28, 2012 representatives of Charlottesville Elks Lodge 389 attended a Memorial Day Service held at the Albemarle County Office Building and laid a wreath in honor and memory of sacrifices made by our fallen military. Guest speaker was Colonel James (Jim) O'Kelley (Ret). Colonel O'Kelley stated that there was an obvious lack of younger faces in attendance and stated they should be taught to respect this occasion and made aware of the price our military has paid for our freedom. He also stated " Today we remember the fallen, in November we remember the ones who made it home,"
