

Charlottesville 389 Provides Over 100 Holiday Food Baskets

Charlottesville Elks Lodge 389

Provides over 100 Holiday Food Baskets to the Community

On December 13th, Charlottesville 389 provided over 100 meals to the community to deserving families. This was made possible by the Jim Ewing Endowment Fund along with a Beacon Grant. Lodge members called in the troops from Scout Troop 87 to assist with this effort.

The Lodge was blessed to have this event covered by the local media. In Billie Ewing's interview, she related on how her late husband was proud to be an Elk. To see the story—click the link below.
