

Virginia Elks Association News

August 24, 2017

Clifton Forge 1065 Gives 670 Safety Glasses to Area Schools

Clifton Forge 1065 recently distributed 670 pairs of safety glasses to area high schools and technical centers. The schools were Jackson River Technical Center which serves Alleghany High School and Covington High School, Floyd S Kay Vocational Center which serves Rockbridge County High School and James River High School, and Mertz Vocational Center which serves Bath County High School. The first picture (top) is JRTC Director Glenn Spangler and Clifton Forge ER Chris Hutchison.

The second picture (middle) is ER Hutchison and Floyd Kay Director Steve Wilder.

The third picture (bottom) is ER Hutchison and JRHS Principal Jamie Talbott.

Submitted by John Hutchison

Send comments to webmaster@virginiaelks.org