

Virginia Elks Association News

August 24, 2013

Front Royal 2382 Officers Receive Drug Awareness Honors

Pete Decatur and Larry Funk

Pete Decatur and Dennis Henline

Virginia Elks Association State Drug Awareness Chairman Pete Decatur visited Front Royal 2382 on August 21st and presented the Enrique Camarena Award for the State of Virginia to Warren County Sheriff's Deputy Larry Funk. This award recognizes and honors law enforcement officers who have made a significant contribution in the field of drug prevention. Officer Funk is a member of the Front Royal Lodge and serves as their D.A.R.E. Chairman. Pete also presented a Commendation Award to Dennis Henline, Exalted Ruler, for Front Royal Lodge's "meritorious participation in the Drug Awareness Program of Grand Lodge."

Submitted by Jane Wine

Send comments to webmaster@virginiaelks.org