

September 6, 2013

Hampton 366 Delivers 500 Safety Glasses to Area Schools

On August 28, 2013, Hampton 366, in conjunction with the Virginia Elks Association, delivered 250 glasses to the New Horizons Regional Education Center in Newport News, Virginia, which provides technical training to high school students and adults in the Peninsula region of Virginia. The Safety Glasses to School Students Program is one of the Virginia Elks Association's state major projects. The people pictured modeling the glasses are (L to R): Scott Harrell, Autobody Repair Instructor; Dave Kelly, Exalted Ruler; Bill Tennis, Past State President; Bruce Schaffer, Principal; Glen Jones, Security; Deb Rosson, Vet Science Instructor; Tim Extine, Carpentry Instructor; Mikaela Extine, Student; Santita Gleen, Cosmetology Instructor; and Buddy Deese, Past State President, Virginia Elks Association.

The Virginia Elks Association also delivered 250 glasses to the New Horizons Career and Technical Education Center in Hampton, Virginia. Pictured are (L to R): Dr. Parsons, Asst. Principal; Dave Kelly, Exalted Ruler; David Creamer, Principal; and Buddy Deese, Past State President.