

Hampton 366 Ladies of the Elks Send Goody Boxes to Troops

Excavations in the Kandahar area have revealed signs of human settlement dating back 7000 years. Second millennium B.C. Bronze Age pottery, copper and bronze horse trappings and stone seals have also been discovered in nearby caves. Today, Kandahar is Afghanistan's second largest city.

The Ladies of the Elks of Hampton 366 send boxes overseas to the troops. We received this postcard from one of the units that received our boxes. It lifts the heart. Please take the time to read the personal notes sent to us from the troops to whom we send the packages. It's a wonderful feeling to know how much they appreciate the items. It is especially rewarding for us that they know the people back home really care.
