

Pulaski 1067 Again Holds “Old Pros” Concert for Veterans

The Old Pros Big Band Orchestra Back in Concert November 10th

Pulaski 1067 will again honor the Men and Women who have served and protected our Nation with a special honorarium concert on November 10th.

This year's concert will be given in the Pulaski Theater. All tickets are complimentary but limited to the house seating capacity. Tickets are needed to assure seating and may be obtained by emailing elks1067@psknet.com for a reserved ticket. In addition any Pulaski 1067 Member is a source for obtaining a reserved ticket.

The Concert hours are 7:30 to 9:30. Seating will be available at 6:45. The friends of the Theater will be operating their excellent concession stand with something for every taste.

All present serving, discharged, and retired military veterans are warmly invited to enjoy this concert as well as family members, friends and any residents of the community. This is a special concert with musical recognition and songs that will bring back memories.

If you haven't been to the Pulaski Theater in many years this is a wonderful opportunity to enjoy the ambiance, the music, and see all the hard work the Friends of the Theater have done. But most of all be there to help the Elks honor our citizens of the community who have served and protected our great county.

Get your tickets early. Please direct your questions by email to elks1067@psknet.com.