Pulaski 1067 Held its annual Memorial Service in the Lodge Hall on the anniversary of Pearl Harbor Day, December 7. This 2014 service marks the 107th year for the Pulaski Lodge and the 105th year at its present address.

Added to the Marble Tablets of Love and Memory were JoAnn Aust Asbury, Kent Sharp, and Robert Ingram. The Lodge tablets now contain 638 names of absent members, beginning in December 1907 to September 2014.

Photo is of Exalted Ruler Jim Chitwood thanking Brandon Atkins in front of the Lodge Tablets. Brandon represented his choir group of the Pulaski County High School, and performed the Lodge’s signature memorial song, Danny Boy, for the Service.

Twenty Five attendees, including family members participated in the Eleven O’clock toast, as well as a tea served by lodge officers.
