

November 10, 2014

Pulaski 1067 Holds Another Successful Veterans Day Concert

Pulaski 1067 had another very successful Veterans Day Concert with New River Community College's "The Old Pros Big Band Orchestra." The Old Pros Big Band Orchestra is an all-volunteer organization founded in 1973 by a small group of musicians interested in preserving and playing the sounds of the Big Band era. The group, conducted by Dean Chiapetto, plays music from the heyday of the Big Band era as well as today's modern sounds. Band members have diverse musical and professional backgrounds and span a wide age range.

Special guests of Jim Chitwood, long time 1067 Exalted Ruler, were VEA President Bev Hamby and Southwest District Deputy Esquire Bill Mathieu and his wife Roberta.