

October 2, 2013

Roanoke 197 Gives 1000 Glasses to Area Schools, Gift to DD

(L to R) Front Row: Mike Toney, Auto Body teacher Salem City Schools; Brian Howell, Auto tech student Roanoke City Schools; Rick Nielsen, Auto Body student Roanoke City Schools; Carl Heath, Burton Center Motorsports Program; and Jason Suhr, Director of Career and Technical Education at the Burton Center Roanoke County Schools. Middle Row: Walter Hodges, Christine Jordan, John Welch, Barbara Brandtner, Kathy Cook, Vince Brandtner, Jim Batey, Tommy Omer. Back Row: Dan Saunders, Wayne Hall, Mike Via, Tim Shepherd, Brad Snead, Bill Chase, Kathy Duncan, Steve Brandtner

Walter Hodges and Jim Batey.

At District Deputy Walter Hodges' visit to Roanoke 197's regular meeting on September 24, the Lodge presented 1000 pairs of Safety Glasses to Roanoke area technical schools. The glasses will be used by the schools in Auto Body and other technical classes which require them. Representatives of some of these schools are shown on the front row of the left photo above. At the same meeting, Roanoke 197 presented DD Hodges with a Clock Plaque inscribed with his name, purpose of visit, Lodge name, and date in honor of his visit.