

Virginia Elks Association News

September 10, 2014

Staunton 351 Delivers 2,282 Safety Glasses to Area Schools

L to R: Director of Instruction John Matherly, CTE Curriculum Supervisor Lisa Shifflett, Staunton 351 Safety Glasses Chair Paul Hiveley, and Superintendent of Augusta County Schools Dr. Eric Bond model the Elks Safety Glasses

L to R: Student Madison Davis, Student Kayla Graham, Executive Director of Instruction Dori Walk, Staunton 351 Safety Glasses Chair Paul Hiveley, Student Danielle Hammer, and Student Dylan Wimer

Staunton 351 delivered 2282 pairs of Safety Glasses to Local School Systems. The total includes 1662 pair delivered to Augusta County Schools, 500 pair delivered to Valley Vocational Technical Center, (Waynesboro 2270 assisted with this delivery) and 100 pair delivered to Staunton's Lee High School. Staunton 351, Waynesboro 2270, Virginia Elks Association, and the Elks National Foundation all provided funds to help finance this part of this Major Project of Virginia Elks.

Submitted by Paul Hiveley

Send comments to webmaster@virginiaelks.org