

Virginia Elks Association News

November 23, 2013

Staunton 351's "Operation Cover-Up" Gives Clothes to Youth

Staunton 351 in cooperation with Staunton City Schools presented winter clothes to forty-eight students at the Dixon Pre-School Program during "Operation Cover-Up." The lodge received a Beacon Grant from the Elks National Foundation for the project. The project also received a gift card from the Walmart in Staunton to help with purchases. Pictured are: bottom row-Dr. Jelisa Wolfe(Director of Student Services for the schools), Nancy Dickerson (Exalted Ruler of the Staunton Elks Lodge), and student representatives Brenda G., and Alexandra Mc.; on the sofa- Stephanie J., Jaydin W., Dayvon D., and Curtis A.; in back are Paul Hiveley and Robert Bean, Staunton Elks Lodge members.