Woodbridge 2355 Sends 10 Campers to Virginia Elks Youth Camp

Woodbridge 2355 sent four girls to attend the first session and six boys to attend the fourth session of the 2013 Virginia Elks Youth Camp Season.

The girls demonstrated a high level of excellence through their conduct and participation in VEYC activities and sports. The girls received 14 ribbons, of which 4 were 1st place, 8 were 2nd place, and 2 were 3rd place ribbons. They all received Outstanding Camper Certificates by receiving a score 90 or above in 10 VEYC criterion. Sherri Harris received the highest score of a perfect 100 out of 100.

The Boys also continued with a high level of excellence through their conduct and participation in VEYC activities and sports. The boys received 28 ribbons, of which 17 were 1st place, 7 were 2nd place, and 4 were 3rd place. Four of the boys received Outstanding Camper Certificates by receiving a score 90 or above in 10 VEYC criterion. De'Carlos Carter received the highest score, a perfect 100 out of 100. Lodge member Pat McKeown and his wife Jenn's son Declan again received the Athlete of the week award for his second consecutive year; helping him along the way were his nine 1st place ribbons.
